I was first contacted by Steve Baughn with nextGEN during the beginning of my job search. Out of numerous emails, his was the only one that stood out to me. I could tell that he had taken time to read through my information and was spot on with his opinion of the job market, or lack of, in my area. Although I was focusing my search in the southwest, he sent me information on a position in the northwest that turned out to be a perfect fit.

After introducing me to this potential position, Steve did an amazing job guiding me through the entire process. He was always available and extremely helpful. He frequently sent me interviewing tips and helped me to stay in constant contact with my potential employers.

When I finally decided that this was the best job opportunity for me, my husband was still unsure as it meant a job transfer for him as well. I knew that the job market in the southwest was not ideal, but for some reason I could not convey this concept to my husband. Steve was more than happy to speak with him and within minutes of getting off the phone my husband was confident that this was the right move for us. Steve then proceeded to help me obtain and sign a contract in a timely manner.

I honestly could not have asked for a better experience. Steve was truthful, down to earth and very helpful. I truly appreciated Steve's assistance in obtaining this new position and would highly recommend his services to any physician in need.

Sincerely,
